MMR_0440 James Harper

James Harper was in the Southeastern Region of the NMRA.

He constructed a phenominal Proto-48 layout in his home: Saint George, Utah.

He modeled his railroad after the Sacramento Northern and Southern Pacific railroads. Like many of us, life brought its choices and Jim decided he would move from Utah to Oregon. That meant the end of a truly great scale model railroad. There are videos on YouTube about his layout.